LOUIS J. MILLER:

After an unusually industrious and well-directed life covering sixty years L. J. Miller finds himself the possessor of two farms in Limestone township, his home place of one hundred and twenty acres on section 18, and a place the same size south-east of his home, in section 20, purchased in 1903, and formerly the farm of Mary Stuewig. The life of Mr. Miller has been somewhat eventful, and being an observer of men and events, he has become one of the best informed farmers of his township. Born in Germany, January 14, 1845, he is a son of Louis and M. G. (Schrader) Miller, who had also another son, who, however, died in infancy.

Deprived of his father by death when he was a small lad, Mr. Miller lived with his mother until he was eighteen, in the meantime securing a fair education in the public schools, and in a college which he attended for a term. Arriving in America in 1866, he located first at Bloomington, Illinois, where he filled the chair of German in the Normal school for two years. He then moved to Chicago and clerked in a general store for a year. After coming to Kankakee, he worked for a year for Joseph Baker. In September 1874 he married Mary J. Coon, daughter of George and Mary J. (Grandberry) Coon who were born in Germany, and came to the U. S. in 1836. Mrs. Miller was educated in the district schools of Limestone township, and being a woman of economical habits and cheerful disposition, has greatly aided her husband in accomplishing his success. The children of Mr. & Mrs. Miller are as follows: LUELLA, born May 17, 1875, died April 6, 1897, LUTHER C. Born March 26, 1877, GEORGE, born Sept. 21, 1879, HERBERT, born January 5, 1885, and CHARLOTTE, born February 12, 1891. Mr. Miller is a member of the German Lutheran Church and he and his wife attend the Evangelical Church. He is a Republican in politics, and for twenty-seven years has been a member of the school board. His general knowledge and industry have been of great benefit to the people of his township, and have won for him the esteem and

FREEZES FEET IN DASH FOR HELP

Girl of 16 Has Bitter Experience

Luella Foltz, 16, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Cloice Foltz of Bonfield rural route 1, is a patient in St. Mary hospital recovering from exposure during the subzero weather of Wednesday night.

About 3 o'clock Thursday morning when the Foltz home was totally destroyed by fire she ran a half mile for help, barefooted and clad only in night clothing. Her feet wee badly frozen.

Mr. & Mrs. Foltz and their nine children, including a baby less than a week old, were forced to flee from the burning home without taking time to dress. They took refuge to the corn crib until the daughter brought help. Later they were taken to the home of a neighbor Jesse Wilson.

The house and contents were destroyed. The plight of the family was reported to the Kankakee Red Cross by Edward F. Schwark, Salina Township Supervisor, and that organization has furnished clothing for the entire family, including sweaters, nightwear, hose, underwear, wrappings for the baby, and bed clothing.

News of the girl's heroic trip through the snow and cold came to the Republican-News a day late because telephone service between Kankakee and Bonfield was interrupted by the storm.

Generation 4 (con't)

Notes for Luella Dorothy Foltz:

Luella was the first child born to Cloice and Charlotte (Miller) Foltz. She was born at the Miller homestead and lived there until the folks moved to the farm where Buck was born. She attended Dunn School for seven years.

Their home burned on Feb. 9 1933 when Luella was 16 years old. There was no time to dress or find shoes, so she ran to the home of Jesse Wilson barefoot for help. A bitter northwest wind whistled through the trees and it was 22 degrees below zero. When Wilsons came for our family and we were all safe in their house, it was discovered that Luella's feet were badly frozen. It was an arduous trip to the hospital. It was feared for a time that they would have to amputate both feet. Mom refused to sign the papers permitting amputation but soon improvement set in and the danger was past. For a long time after she left the hospital she hobbled about, but her natural vigor, plus her determination overcame the lameness and now she walks as well as ever. She was awarded a "PRAIRIE FARMER" hero medal and never was one more richly deserved!

In 1934 she went to work for Wendlings, then on to Kankakee to work at Blatz Junk Yard and roomed with Mr. and Mrs. Porter Smith. She went to Chicago in 1935 to work for Gardners who were transferred to Philadelphia in 1936. She stayed with them for seven months then began working for Grundys and stayed with them until returning to Illinois to marry Melvin Watson. They lived with Melvin's grandfather, William Shutters, for a while after they were married. They also lived in Monee, Hammond, Harvey, Bradley and Joliet to where their business had expanded. They sold the business in 1983, retired and moved back to Bradley, IL.

Melvin and Luella were married 61 years, Luella died only three months shy of their 62nd anniversary.

Notes for Melvin Watson:

Melvin attended grade school in Indiana harbor. They moved to Florida where he attended jr. High. He sent his teen age years on the farm of his grandfather William Shutters in Limestone. Melvin and Luella were married April 20, 1938 in Manteno by Rev. Smith. They lived on the farm until crops were in. He worked at Florence Stove Factory in 1940. After a lay-off, he went to Inland Steel for 2 years, then on construction Dec. 1944 where he worked for Thomas Madden Construction where he stayed seven years. In 1953 he suffered a broken jaw, and while recovering he thought about homesteading in Alaska. He decided to go to Alaska so he packed his car (June 1953) heading North. He liked the country so much he returned in 1954 and 1955 for the work season which is from May to October. In 1957 he worked in Chicago Heights at the Ford Plant which was being built. In October 1957 Melvin had surgery for ulcer. In 1959 he started his business, M & W Disposal Co. In Kankakee.

Generation 4 (con't)

- i. SUSAN<sup>5</sup> FOLTZ was born on 23 Dec 1953.

Notes for Susan Foltz:

My brother, Ed and I were born in Biloxi, Miss 12/23/53 and 11/24/54 respectively We moved to Kankakee for a short time and then to Germany. After a year there, my parents split and my mother came back to the States with us in 1958 or 59. She had a sister (who also married an Air Force serviceman) living in Tonawanda, NY. We moved in with them until we got settled in our own place. Ed and I started kindergarten together and went through High School in the Tonawanda area. Ed joined the Navy and ended up in Seattle, he is currently remarried and is living in Gig Harbor, WA. I live in Playa del Rey (a beach community near Santa Monica)

My mother (Elena Dewey) is alive and still beautiful at 75 and very active. My father met her while stationed in Tripoli, Libya, which was an Italian Province. Her first language is Italian. We have family in Italy and I visit periodically. She lives in Murrieta, CA, which is 90 miles from me. Her husband, Richard Dewey, passed away 4 years ago - they moved here from Buffalo, NY in 1994. She retired last year from the Murrieta School District - she was a Teacher's Aid. Since her Retirement, she has taken up Paddle Tennis, Bridge, Bowling, loves to dance and attends St. Martha's Catholic Church. She lives in a 55 and Better Community, which enables her to be very active.

I have been living in the Los Angeles area for 30 years - I left Buffalo after the Blizzard of '77.
